

Portland General Electric board of directors adds tech industry veteran

November 27, 2018

New appointee brings extensive expertise to support PGE's innovative clean energy vision

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Michael Millegan has been appointed to the Portland General Electric (NYSE: POR) board of directors, effective Jan. 1, 2019.

Millegan is the founder and chief executive officer of Millegan Advisory Group-3, a company focused on strategy and transformation for small and mid-sized companies.

"The electric industry is undergoing significant change. Innovation and technology are vital as PGE advances its ambitious clean energy vision," said Jack Davis, chairman of PGE's board of directors. "Michael has experience with technology accelerating the pace of change in a highly complex industry that will add tremendous value to our board."

Davis said the addition reflects the board's ongoing commitment to succession planning and strategy. Millegan will serve on the board's Audit Committee and Finance Committee.

"I am excited to join the board of PGE and support its mission to achieve a clean energy future," said Millegan. "I admire how PGE is attuned to the community which it serves and that is also home to my extended family."

Millegan previously served as president of the Global Wholesale Unit at Verizon, where he also led several large-scale and large-scope business units during a career spanning more than 30 years. He rose through the ranks to specialize in technology transformation, product development, supply chain management, operations and cybersecurity. He is also an independent board director for Wireless Telecom Group and is a member of the board for Vetttd.
