

Robert Hoglund nominated for election by shareholders to join the Portland General Electric board of directors

March 13, 2026

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Robert Hoglund has been nominated by the Portland General Electric (NYSE:POR) board of directors to stand for election as a new independent director at PGE's 2026 annual meeting of shareholders. If elected by PGE shareholders, his term will begin May 1, 2026.

"We are excited to have Robert join the PGE Board," said Jim Torgerson, chair of PGE's board of directors. "Robert brings extensive utility industry experience and financial expertise that will be invaluable as we continue to navigate the evolving energy landscape and deliver value to our customers and stakeholders."

Hoglund is a seasoned financial executive with over two decades at Consolidated Edison, Inc., including more than 18 years as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Prior to Consolidated Edison, he spent over 15 years in investment banking predominantly in utility mergers and acquisitions, including as a Managing Director in the M&A department and utilities group head at Citigroup.

Hoglund currently serves on the boards of Middlesex Water Company and South Jersey Industries. He holds Bachelor's, MBA and JD degrees from the University of Virginia.

Hoglund will serve on PGE's Audit and Risk Committee and the Compensation, Culture and Talent Committee.

About Portland General Electric Company
